Isabel Giannini

3rd $1,000 trout of season caught in June Lake Loop

For more than 20 years Isabel and Dante Giannini of Button Willow have been vacationing and fishing in the June Lake Loop. July 15 was the lucky day for Isabel.

While still fishing on June Lake, Isabel hooked into a 1 lb. 12 oz. Rainbow trout. She discovered the $1000 tag in the fish's lip. The fish was caught off the south shore of June Lake using Golden Nugget salmon eggs on a light leader spinning outfit.

This was the third tagged fish caught during the 1975 season. One tagged fish remains in Gull Lake, waiting for some lucky person to hook into it. Additionally; four fish remain from the 1974 program, one in each lake, to be redeemed for $250 each.

For information on how to claim these cash prizes, contact any June Lake Loop businessman.

Indians ask board's help on area pine nut issue

Mono supervisors heard a brief presentation by Gerald Lewis, chairman of the Ta Nume Association and representative of the four Indian communities in Mono county, on the pine nut issue at their July 22 meeting.

The issue, instigated in the fall of 1974 when it was learned that permits were to be issued to commercial pinenut pickers, and leading to the need for a written agreement by all government agencies involved in opposition to commercial pickers, was described to the board.

Asking for support by Mono officials of a resolution against commercial permits, Lewis outlined the history of the issue and his people's hard work to ban this type of picking.

Lewis stated, "The Indian people of both Inyo and Mono counties want it to be known that they are in opposition to the commercial exploitation of their native foods, mainly the pine nuts.

"We feel that our Creator placed these native foods here for the benefit of the people (Whites and Indians alike) to use as food and not to be sold or exploited for money.

"We also feel that any exploitation whatsoever, is enfringing upon our culture and traditional values, ideals and religious beliefs.

"In addition, we feel it is in our interest to protect these native foods due to the fact that they are essential and play a vitally important role to the survival of our culture and to the livelihood of our people and also to the livelihood of our animal friends.

"Furthermore, we feel it is imperative to establish a documented written cooperative agreement between the native people and the governmental agencies concerned now, to insure protection to the pine nuts and other foods for future use by the Indian people."

The supervisors unanimously agreed with Lewis and were in general agreement with the resolution, but asked Lewis to add control policies and restraints to insure proper protection and a lasting, legal document.

In further action the board:

Accepted a letter from the Bank of California which states that they are

Disney film Kit Carson feature

Grisly beards and tattered cowboy hats marked the appearance of the "bad guys" in the area for the filming of a Walt Disney western feature on Kit Carson.

The crew of about 89 consisting of cast, bad guys, wranglers, and stunt men, stayed in Mammoth for a week while filming in the Crowley Lake dam area and Buttermilk basin near Bishop.

The hour long Sunday evening special has not as yet been scheduled but will be released for TV viewing after all editing and cutting of the sequences has been completed.

Members of the crew had planned about a week and a half of filming, but were pleased to add that they were well ahead of schedule.

Crews were able to head home in shifts as their work was finished before last weekend with the last of the cowboys and wranglers departing Monday evening after a day of shooting in Buttermilk basin.

So. Mono Hospital District awaits word on water service

Southern Mono Hospital District met July 11 at Mountain Flowers in Mammoth.

While under discussion of old business a letter was noted from Keith Brownell, M.A.I. appraiser counselor and realtor for the district who wrote," . . . Additional expense was also incurred because after starting this appraisal, the Mammoth County Water District informed me that there was considerable doubt as to whether or not they would provide water to this land. The question of water service required considerable effort. I tried unsuccessfully to obtain from both the Forest Service and the Water District a letter to the effect that they would provide water unconditionally. Neither agency would supply such a statement to me."

Allan O'Connor, architect, will have plans available for the next water board meeting to be held the first Wednesday in August in order that the water problem may be solved.

O'Connor then presented to the board John Kariotis, Dick Burgess and Wally Weber, engineers, and E.I.R. consultant and architect Overpeck as subcontracted personnel who will be working on the hospital.

After a short talk by each man, a discussion for the need of administrative guidance ensued.

An application for approval of geological and seismological reports with filing fee submitted to the state was taken care of.

A special meeting will be held again this month to discuss plans and progres of the new hospital.

Brinson, Butt win singles in Mammoth open tennis meet

by Mike Yorkey

Unseeded Dennis Brinson, a 17-year-old from Carson City, knocked off the first two seeds in the Men's A division to capture the second annual Mammoth Lakes Open Tennis Tournament.

Brinson's 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 defeat of defending champion Andy Ullich in the Sunday finals highlighted three days of play. The Mammoth tournament was spread out at three locales—the Community, Vista and Mammoth High School Courts—and involved nearly 125 matches in seven divisions.

Linesmen swilled beer during matches, but not as much as the glazed gallery perched on the bank of the Community courts. It was that kind of tournament.

The blond-haired Brinson used his cat-like quickness and steady groundstrokes to subdue the hard-serving Ullich. Brinson was behind 4-6, 0-3 and appeared to be Ullich's final victim until he settled down and began outstroking and outmoving the stolid Ullich. Indeed, Brinson swept the final 13 of 19 games to post the victory.

"My strategy was to get my first serve in and return well off his service," said Brinson following the match. "All I had to do was to get the ball in play and I knew I'd beat him."

Brinson gained the final round by defeating second seed Mike Yorkey in the quarterfinals, 6-3, 6-2. Ullich, a UCLA student, encountered stiff opposition only in his first round match, defeating Los Angeles' David Body, 7-6, 6-4.

"He was a real scrambler, and he didn't give up even when I had him," said a disconsolate Ullich, who could only stand flatfooted when the fleet Brinson turned his drop-shots into winners.

The other divisons involved more Mammoth tennis players. In the Women's A finals, an all-Mammoth affair, Pat Butt patiently defeated Marge Papp, 6-0, 4-6, 6-2 in 2½ hours.

The women's match, which preceded the men's final, was marked by somnambulatory baseline rallies which numbered in the dozens. "Even I kept looking at my watch to see how long we were taking," laughed Mrs. Butt afterwards.

In the B divisions, John Ellsworth defeated upstart Pry Yorker, 6-3, 6-2. Ellsworth had previously stopped the Cinderella advance of 60-year-old Gunter Eklund in a long semifinal match. Yorkey's toughest match en route to the finals was a three-set encounter with Jim Thee, a match which also cost Thee a six-pack of San Miguel Darks. In the Women's final, Linda Martin outlasted Tracy Butler, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

The tournament, which ran smoothly under the Bill Alpers grand marshal for annual Homecoming celebration

Bill Alpers, Laws native and long-time owner and operator of the Owens River Ranch in upper Long Valley, will serve as grand marshal of the 1975 Bishop Homecoming and Labor Day celebration Aug. 30-Sept. 1.

Alpers, 65, will lead the Homecoming parade down Main St. Saturday, Aug. 30 and will be present for other activities during the three-day celebration.

Alpers and his wife of 40 years, Alice, have two children, Kathleen Miloradich of Bishop, who was Homecoming queen in 1961, and Tim Alpers, now assistant basketball coach at the University of Tulsa in Oklahoma and formerly coach and teacher at Bishop and Mammoth high schools. The couple also has a granddaughter, Amanda Miloradich, 5, who has won three blue ribbons in eight appearances in Bishop parades.

Alpers served eight years on the Tri-County Fair board of directors and eight years as a member of the Lahontan Regional Water Quality Control Board. He is currently president of the U. S. Soil Conservation Dist. Board.

Alpers was born Feb. 4, 1910 to Fred and Christina Alpers at their ranch three miles north of Laws, which

TABOOSE by Todd Watkins

Top radio, TV and press representatives made their annual inspection tour of the High Sierra last weekend, making their headquarters at Andy and Dottie Oldfield's Boulder Lodge at June Lake. They fished many areas over a 4 day period. Some of the old-time newsmen have been coming to the High Sierra a long, long time. The senior newsman in the group with the longest High Sierra record, was probably Herbert H. Krauch, now retired editor of the old Los Angeles Examiner. Herb brought along lots of old photos of High Sierra angling . . . and somehow the trout looked larger. He had California angling licenses dated 1916 and 1917, when the tab was $1 for the license. On the back of the 1916 license the state had printed: "Your dollar is used to maintain 16 hatcheries and egg collecting stations, raise, distribute 18,000,000 trout annually; build the most modern hatcheries in the world; patrol 157,000 miles of fishing streams; make California's hatcheries the best in the world; make California the anglers' paradise."

Herb also had a tattered receipt dated May 26, 1924 certifying that he had been fumigated with formaldehyde gas at Little Lake, Inyo county, as a precaution against the spread of hoof and mouth disease. The certificate cost $2 and was signed by L. W. Munzinger. Seems authorities were trying to prevent the spread of hoof and mouth disease from Southern California into Owens Valley.

A lot of the top writers of the U. S. and many top TV commentators were on last weekend's tour. Most of them come every year . . . and boost our area every chance they get. While the visiting press usually catch all the trout they can eat, they do get static from their public who love the High Sierra but complain that there are not enough trout to go around. One suggested that perhaps some of our areas (like Mammoth, which has 23,000 beds) will have to copy what businessmen have done at Big Bear Lake area, and plant thousands of larger catchable trout. The word is that even condominium owners at Mammoth are having trouble getting even one trout. Anyway, the visiting press caught plenty of trout in various waters from just south of Bridgeport; the weather was perfect, and food was great, thanks to the Embers, Sierra Inn and Paradise Lodge. They love this country. The feeling is mutual . . . welcome back any time!

In bull sessions with visiting press, one gets a big variety of off-the-record comments. Keep in mind some of these guys are commentators for TV networks. Some aren't completely sold on spending billions on space programs, especially when Russia, in the past week's space rendezvous, benefits more worldwide, publicity-wise, than does the U. S. Some aren't sold on detente with Russia . . . or China . . . or any other communist country. Some think we've been had with the United Nations . . . we finance the outfit . . . and the emerging nations vote against us every time . . . at our expense. Some of these visiting press men have pretty stiff income tax tabs. Some wonder if we aren't getting more government than we can understand, need, pay for . . . or want. Some wonder about the social planners who want to plunge our country into debt deeper. Those of us over 60 recall the days in the U. S. when half and two-thirds of our people lived in what we would describe as substandard housing today. But today, fewer than 10 per cent do. And, today 99 per cent have gas and electricity in their homes; 96 per cent have television sets, thus access to more information. And we have more churches, libraries and voluntary support for more symphonies, operas and nonprofit theatres than the rest of the world together. A lot of our economic and social planners still beat the drums for control and order that come with central planning. For a sample of the paradise such planning can produce, we need only look at India and East Germany, to name two. Better yet, we could emulate a great nation more our size, a nation of some 250 million capable people and one rich in natural resources. The Kremlin has had nearly 60 years in which to make socialism work. We could be just like the Russians, though it would take a bit of doing. We'd have to cut our paychecks back by more than 80 per cent; move 33 million workers back to the farm; destroy 59 million television sets; tear up 14 out of every 15 miles of highway; junk 19 of every 20 automobiles; rip up two-thirds of our railroad track; knock down 15 per cent of our houses and remove nine of every 10 telephones. Then all we'd have to do would be to find a capitalist country willing to sell us wheat on credit to keep us from starving.

This is still the greatest country in the world . . . and we hope those 60-plus young folks in the Bishop high school band that arrive home early this morning from those concerts in Europe found out just that.

Garamendi backs bill for rural health service corps

Legislation which would create a health services corps to provide doctors for counties such as Mono in rural California areas has been introduced by Assemblyman John Garamendi, D-Manteca.

"I have introduced this comprehensive bill in response to Gov. Brown's call for a redistribution of doctors to areas which badly need them," Garamendi said.

In his May 16 proclamation calling a special session of the Legislature to deal with the medical malpractice insurance crisis, Gov. Brown formally recommended "establishing a medical peace corps to serve Californians who lack adequate medical care."

Garamendi's bill would do three things: 1. establish an office of health services development to fund projects in underserved rural and urban areas which would improve hospital, clinic or ambulance services; 2. create a health services corps to recruit doctors, nurses and paramedics to voluntarily work in medically underserved parts of the state; and 3. administer State loans for medical students and require borrowers to participate in the health services corps for two years after they become licensed physicians.

"Urban counties on paper appear to have enough medical services. In reality, however, there are many people who have little or no access to hospitals, clinics, or doctors," Garamendi said. "This legislation should help them.

"On the other hand, geographically large, rural counties that are sparsely populated typically have only a handful of family doctors, no specialists, a distant hospital and inadequate ambulance service.

"Mono County, for example, has over 4,000 permanent residents with a winter influx of thousands more to the Mammoth Lakes ski resort region. Yet there are only two practicing physicians in Mono County which has an area as large as Alameda, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara counties combined," explained Garamendi, who is a member of the Assembly Health Committee.

"This bill is addressed to the needs of people who are now suffering and dying unnecessarily because health services are unavailable," Garamendi concluded.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

An Over-The-Line Tournament was held this past weekend at Shady Rest Park in Mammoth Lakes. I would just like to voice my disgust at the way that the women were treated at this tournament, in the awarding of prizes and prize money.

There were a total of 17 teams entered with four of those being women's teams at a $10 entry fee per team. This would mean there was $170 collected by the people who put the tournament on. Local merchants also donated prizes. There was a promise of cash prizes on flyers around town.

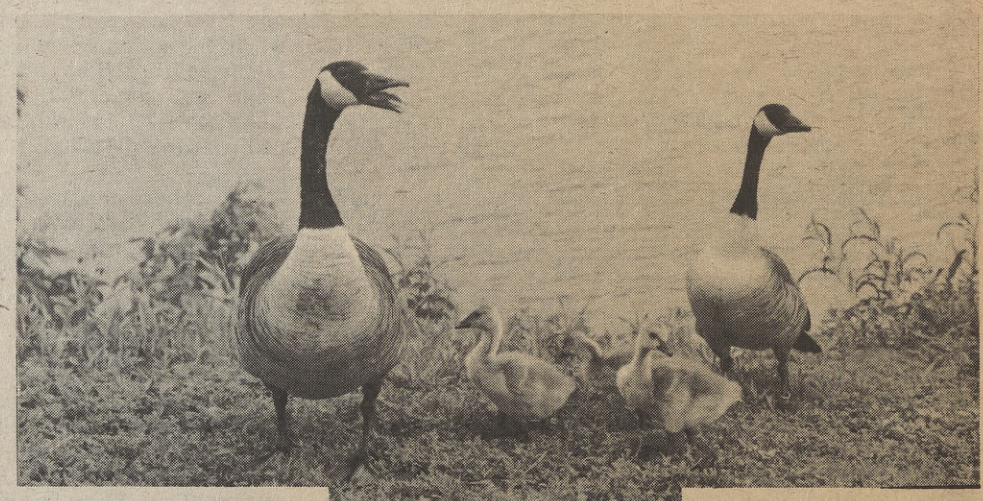

The men's team first place received $50 cash plus three dinners at Whiskey Creek. Second place got $25 plus other donated prizes. Third place got $15 plus prizes. Prizes were awarded through fifth place in the men's division.

For the women, first place received three $10 gift certificates at the Outfitter (donated prizes). Second place got one medium pizza at Perry's Pizza (also donated).

The way this looks to me is that for the men, out of $130 put in, $90 was returned to them in cash awards. But, for the women, out of $40 in entry fees, none was returned.

I realize that it cost some money to put on a tournament of this nature, but the question I ask is, is it really fair to the women to use 100 per cent of their money to put it on when they don't do the same for the men?

Thank You

LITTLE LEAGUE TOURNEY. District 51 Little League tournament is scheduled in Bishop this week at Bishop City Park. Games are set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, July 24-25-26. Word is circulating that this is the first district tournament to ever be held in Bishop. I'm not sure about that. Seems to me we had a district tournament here about 1959, out at the old Bishop Memorial Ball Park at the Y. In those days, though, Little League officials were constantly changing district boundaries and designations. So, this probably is the first district 51 tourney to be staged in Bishop.

Bishop Little League won't be represented in the district affair, having lost to Ridgecrest in the area tourney championship game last Saturday in Independence. From the standpoint of fairness, the situation is probably the best arrangement. I've always felt that championship games of any type are a truer test if played at a neutral site.

In this instance, all four teams will be laboring under the same conditions and handicaps. There will be no "home field" advantage.

BASKETBALL. Gus Klekas tells me that the local area summer basketball league will wind up 1975 action this week.

Among the week's attractions lined up by the Bishop cage boss is a Wednesday game at Mammoth and a Friday game between Bishop and Burroughs.

That doesn't wind up the basketball for the local cagers, though. Next month, August 10 to be exact, 20 of the Broncos will be in Idyllwild for a week's stay at a basketball camp.

One of the co-directors at the Idyllwild camp is Bob Kloppenburg, former coach at Victor Valley High when VV was in the Desert-Inyo League many years ago. Kloppenburg is currently head basketball coach at United States International University in San Diego, where he has compiled an impressive record.

FOOTBALL. With the local basketballers closing their off-season shop, at least temporarily, the football players take over the local facilities next week.

Bishop grid boss Irwin Spector and the Broncos start their summer passing league next Monday, July 28, for a three-week run. The passing league, with possible participation by Lone Pine and Mammoth, will continue to Aug. 15. Then the Broncos will take a week off before reporting for the pre-season physical conditioning week.

Bishop coaches stress that attendance during the conditioning week, August 25-29, is "mandatory for all Broncos who intend to play football for Bishop this year." Physical exams are also on tap for the week of Aug. 25-29.

For readers interested in attending passing league sessions, action is slated for 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. each evening under the lights on John Schwab Field.

SHORT SHOTS. Another member of the highly successful Bishop High coaching staff will be among the missing in September . . . Reagan Green will be moving up the road to Mammoth . . . Green was on the Bronco football and baseball coaching staffs at Bishop last year and will be handling many of the same chores at Mammoth . . . Reagan is the second Bishop mentor to transfer this year to Mammoth, joining Joe Maruca . . . Last year it was Tim Alpers who made the switch from Bishop to Mammoth . . . Tim recently joined basketball staff at Tulsa University . . . Former Bishop high athlete George Kinney, who has been on the coaching staff at Quartz Hill, has also joined the Mammoth faculty.

Picking up on various softball tournaments . . . Martin's Market of Bakersfield won the recent Palmdale Invitational, defeating Valley Merchants of Ridgecrest in the title game . . . Ridgecrest is making a 1975 habit of finishing second, adding runnerup laurels at Palmdale to their previous seconds in the Bishop Classic and the Ridgecrest tournament . . . Abel Insurance of Modesto defeated Sargent's Sport Shop of Sacramento in last weekend's William Brodhead tournament in Reno . . . And, I'm told Mammoth of the Bishop Softball League won a tournament in Hawthorne last weekend.

Upsets mark men's softball

A string of upsets muddled the standings in Bishop Men's Softball League A division play last week, but after the week's results were in Mammoth still led the race by a solid margin.

In B division action the Read's Transport crew continued to roll along undefeated as the competition took turns knocking each other off.

Mammoth came out of the week with a 7-2 record to continue as the A division leader, a jump and one-half ahead of the 5-3 mark posted by Bob and Joe's of Hawthorne.

But the big story in the A race was the string of upsets fashioned over the leaders by Southern Inyo and Big Pine Chevron.

Southern Inyo, getting a big lift from the flinging of Skeeter Miller, surprised Hawthorne by a 4-2 score, then came back to nip Union Carbide, 4-3.

Big Pine Chevron put together a pair of unexpected wins, also. The Big Piners knocked off the Bishop Merchants, 6-5 and whipped the startled Mammoth team, 11-7.

For Southern Inyo, the twin wins ran their winning streak to three and although it didn't pull the SI team out of the cellar, the race tightened up all along the line.

Complete A division standings at the end of the week saw Mammoth on top at 7-2, followed by Hawthorne at 5-3, Bishop Merchants 4-4, Union Carbide 3-5, Big Pine Chevron 3-5, and Southern Inyo 3-6.

Union Carbide was the A division "tough luck team," dropping three games during the week. The Carbides were outscored by Mammoth (5-4), Hawthorne (10-6) and Southern Inyo (4-3).

Meanwhile, Read's Transports took a solid three-game lead in the B standings with a 7-0 record.

The Transporters, who won the first-half title, extended their undefeated second-half mark with two wins, 8-6 over Neighborhood Church and 13-8 over West Bishop.

Three teams ended the week deadlocked for second place. Neighborhood Church and Owens Valley had 4-4 records and Pinon Construction had a 3-3 mark. Dirty Old Men and West Bishop trailed with 3-6 and 2-6 records, respectively.

While Read's continued to win, Neighborhood Church lost twice to fall virtually out of contention. The Churchmen lost the 8-6 decision to Read's and were drubbed by Owens Valley, 8-0.

Owens Valley won twice to move into a second-place tie. The OV crew posted the shutout win over Neighborhood Church and also drubbed Pinon Construction 11-5.

Owens Valley might have taken over undisputed second, but lost a protested game to Dirty Old Men after apparently posting a 10-5 win over the DOM on July 10.

Pinon Construction, after starting the second half in impressive fashion, continued to lose ground to the leaders. The Pinons could only split for the week, defeating Dirty Old Men, 10-5, but losing to Owens Valley.

In the week's other game, West Bishop beat Dirty Old Men, 12-10

Women's softball appears 2-team race

With Read's Transports and Inter-Tribal Council continuing to whip the other teams in the league, the Bishop Women's Softball 1975 league race (at least the second half) appears to be developing into a two-team affair.

Both Read's and ITC won their two outings last week to stay in the first and second positions.

Read's ended the week undefeated in second-half action with a 6-0 mark, while ITC stayed right there with a 5-1 record.

Read's hammered Mill City, 15-1, then knocked off Cable TV, 7-3. The win over Cable TV was the key game of the week. A Cable TV win in that one would have produced a three-way tie for the top, inasmuch as the TV outfit ended the week at 4-2.

Inter-Tribal Council also won two games by hefty scores, swamping Mammoth, 31-4, and Mill City, 14-0.

Cable TV won a 7-0 forfeit win over Inyo-Mono Bank before losing to Read's Transports.

Sierra Chemical, after a ragged second-half start, won two games to move into a third-place tie with Cable TV at 4-2. The Chemists walloped Steve's Automotive, 13-1, and picked up a forfeit victory (7-0) over Inyo-Mono Bank.

In the week's other scheduled game, Mammoth picked up a 7-0 forfeit from Steve's Automotive.

Mill City and Mammoth closed the week tied with 2-4 records, Steve's was 1-5 and Inyo-Mono Bank 0-6.

Ridgecrest wins area 1 Little League championship game

After a barrage of home runs that for a time appeared to threaten defoliation of the verdant backdrop of the outfield, perhaps an Environmental Impact Report (EIR) should have been filed by Ridgecrest following a 26-1 victory over Bishop for the championship of Area 1 in a Little League All-Star baseball game played Saturday afternoon in Independence.

Never before had fans at Johnson Field seen such an awesome barrage from the plate as was launched by the Ridgecrest sluggers. They put the ball out of the park six times, hit five doubles and one triple for a total of 22 hits. And all that while going down via strikeouts nine times.

Jay Perry, Ridgecrest third baseman, hit three consecutive homers, two in one inning. The first time at bat he had struck out. Dave Paradise, first baseman, hit two home runs in a row in the fourth and fifth. They came in clusters, like bombs bursting in air.

As the home team Bishop started off in a manner that had signs of an upset, Tim Reid struck out the first two and while the third Ridgecrest batter, Dale Greim, doubled, the third man went down on strikes.

In Bishop's first turn at bat Bruce Miller singled after one was out, was moved around on another hit by Reid and scored on alert base running when the Ridgecrest catcher couldn't handle the ball. That was all of Bishop's scoring and further details of the game, should be kept top secret except to report that Bishop made a mild threat in the fourth with hits by Reid and Dave McCoy only to be stifled by Ridgecrest hurler Roman Revels.

Ridgecrest and Bishop reached the championships round with respective victories over Owens Valley and China Lake.

In the opener Thursday Ridgecrest power combined with four-hit pitching by Dave Paradise was too much for Owens Valley in losing 14 to 2. Dave Williams, on the mound for the O.V. All-Stars, was touched for 19 hits, two of them home runs, but he did get seven strikeouts. To put it mildly Dave's support was a bit faulty. Owens Valley scored in the first inning. Ben Bunn and Keith Niemala walked. With one out Richard Lombard walked, filling the bases, and Bunn scored on a passed ball. In the fourth Scott Sherritt opened with a double. Jim Carpentier singled and with one out Bunn got one by an error. Niemela then drove Sherritt home with a sharp hit up the middle into right center.

Bishop looked like potential champions defeating China Lake, 6-1, Friday behind the one-hit pitching of Mike Witt who sent 12 back to the bench after swinging in vain. He got two KOs in each of the six innings. Bishop bats also were on target, especially in the fifth, when home runs by Bruce Miller and Mark Kruse plus single by Witt netted four runs. Bishop had scored single runs in the second and fourth. While Bishop was held to four hits, two of them by Kruse, they came at what might be termed opportune times.

All the games drew large attendance with the rival fans sitting in separate bleachers cheering or bemoaning the fate of their favorites.

Ridgecrest may be seen in action again at the District 51 Little League tournament at Diamond 2 in Bishop July 24, 25 and 26.

It was the first time that Area 1 play has been held in Independence, which was selected this year because the field had been put in first class playing condition. This was a project started a couple years ago by Johnny Johnson, commissioner of the baseball for the Lions Club which sponsors the Independence team in the Little League. Johnson has been assisted by Jerry Riesen and at Saturday's game they were given a round of applause when Nick Zupo, who announced the games on the public address system, called attention to their finesse as cosmeticians of the greensward.

The tourney schedule pits Ridgecrest against Quartz Hill tonight and Rosamond against Park View Friday, with the winners of each game to play for the championship Saturday night. At presstime, it had not been determined if the two losing teams would play for consolation honors.

Games will start at 8 p.m. nightly.

ROPING CHAMPS—Bert Lee, left, and Tom Tippets, members of the Bishop high school rodeo club, won the team roping championship earlier this month in the high school rodeo state finals at Santa Maria. The two will go on to compete in the national high school rodeo finals Aug. 4-10 in Gallup, N. M. Another member of the Bishop club, Gail Bennett, tied for fourth place in the girls' barrel race during the state finals and will go on to the nationals.

Drag racing this Sunday at international track

Bishop International Raceway is getting ready for another session of national Hot Rod Assn. professional drag racing this Sunday, July 27.

The raceway's opening event in June proved to be a great crowd pleaser, with near-record times being run by five alcohol-burning "funny cars" from the Los Angeles area.

The featured attraction Sunday will be the "High Sierra pro stock classic," which should draw cars from Nevada and California. A purse of $1,100, with $400 going to the winner and round money for losers, should guarantee a good showing.

Pro stock is a fairly new class to drag racing. As the name implies, these are stock, or production cars, mostly Vegas, Pintos, Colts and the like. What makes them different from mom's "grocery-getter" is the $30,000 the racers have invested in their cars. This money is spent on acid-dipping bodies, monster tires, super-trick transmissions and 1,000-horsepower engines.

Many trophies and an additional $400 will be up for grabs in stock, super stock, modified and competition classes. After the enthusiasm generated by last month's race, there should be a lot of locals in competition.

For a good afternoon's fun, bring the whole family out to Bishop International Raceway, where admission is still a low $3 for adults and only a dollar for kids 6-12. The little ones are free. Enter on Wye Road, just north of Bishop.

Burglary try at auto firm

The Inyo County sheriff's department reported a burglarly attempt Monday, July 21, at White Mountain Motors at the corner of U. S. 395 and Lazy A Drive, Bishop.

The department said nothing was taken from the building but that evidence indicated an attempt was made to enter the used-car firm's facilities.

The help and thoughtfulness during our recent sorrow has been a revelation to us of the fiber of humanity. No other spot on earth could produce such people as there are in Bishop.

AUGUST RODEO—Entries will be taken by telephone this year for the All-Indian Rodeo scheduled Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 2 and 3, at the Tri-County Fairgrounds, Bishop. Entries may be made by calling (714) 873-7714 from 8 a.m. July 30 until 8 a.m. July 31. This year's rodeo, sponsored by the Bishop Indian Athletic Assn., will feature an Indian arts and crafts display and sale. Above picture shows a cowboy competing in one of last year's bareback riding events.

All-Indian Rodeo will feature arts, crafts display and sale

Preparations are continuing this week for the Bishop All-Indian Rodeo Aug. 2 and 3, sponsored by the Bishop Indian Athletic Assn. and sanctioned by the Western States Indian Rodeo Assn. (WSIRA).

An added attraction this year at the rodeo will be an Indian arts and crafts display and sale.

All events will be held at the Tri-County fairgrounds with rodeos set for Saturday, Aug. 2 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Aug. 3 at 2 p.m.

Entries for the rodeo will be taken by telephone from 8 a.m. July 30 to 8 a.m. July 31. The telephone number is (714) 873-7714 and will not be in service until July 30.

Entry fees are $30 for each event, including two go-rounds of calf roping, bareback, two go-rounds of steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, two go-rounds of barrel race, two go-rounds of team roping, and bull riding, which will be limited to 40 cowboys. All purses will have $125 added stakes.

A saddle will be awarded to the all-around cowboy and buckles will be given winners of each event.

Entrants who are not members of the WSIRA may purchase a $5 permit before the rodeo.

Stalls will be made available by the fairgrounds for a charge, but the association will not be responsible for the stall area.

The arts and crafts display and sale will be held in an air-conditioned building near the fair entrance. Booth spaces and tables and chairs will be available for a $10-per-day charge and showcases may be rented for $5 a day, both on a first-come basis. The association will not be responsible for displayed items.

In keeping with the trend of encouraging Indian artists to display and-or sell their crafts, the association is limiting arts and crafts to those made by American Indians.

The displays will be open to the public from 12 noon 11 p.m. Aug. 2 and from noon to 6 p.m. Aug. 3.

For questions on the rodeo or arts and crafts display, and to make reservations for booths, call 872-6411 or write the association, P. O. Box 1406, Bishop 93514.

Benton 4-H Club is sponsoring an open English and Western Horse show July 26 at Bishop fairgrounds, starting about 8 a.m. There will be divisions for juniors and seniors and entries are still welcome. Kandi McCoy Thompson will be the judge for the day's events.

Club planning "fandango" for Indian rodeo

Pu-Va-Na-Wu-Ni-Way Pow Wow club will hold Paiute Fandango Days Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 2 and 3, to coincide with the All Indian Rodeo the same dates.

The fandango will be held at the Indian community hall on Brockman Lane and will include a handgame contest, card games, adult and children's games and a food sale.

Last year, the club called the various events a "pow wow", but decided this year to use the word "fandango", which is what local Indians called a get-together in the old days.

Activities will start Saturday morning, Aug. 2 with games and other contests for adults and children. Exact hours will be announced next week.

A $400 prize will be awarded the winner of the handgame contest. Contest entries close Aug. 2 at 10 a.m.

Camping sites will be available near the community hall.

For further information, write the club, Box 1611, Bishop 93514, or call Lee at 872-6411, or Kathleen at 873-4148.

—Bill Alpers grand marshal

was then a bustling little railroad division point. There were two stores—Compton's general store and Tom Hughes' grocery, a hotel, two movie theaters, one pool hall, two saloons, a post office, numerous boarding houses for the railroad crews, freight yards and a grammar school. Right in the middle of the town were the big cattle-loading chutes and pens.

Fred Alpers, Bill's father, came to the Owens Valley in 1889 and during the next four decades acquired four ranches which supported nearly 1,000 head of Hereford cattle. Bill's birthplace north of Laws was purchased from the Southern Belle Mining Company, which put the land up for sale when the gold veins in the White Mts. above ran out. Alpers acquired water rights from Cold Water Creek and had a plentiful water supply, enabling him to homestead adjacent acreage to increase his pasture and hay lands. He also purchased the Snocky and Condy ranches in the area.

The large and busy Alpers family included five boys and four girls. They received lessons at North Inyo school, a one-room building with a blackboard and a pot-bellied stove, with a hitching rail outside for ranch children who rode their horses to school. The playground was just salt grass and two or three cottonwood trees. The teacher was Mabel K. Amon, Dorothy Cashbaugh's mother.

Neighbors to the north of the Alpers family included the Randolphs, Ehlens, Ottos, Byers, Dumpkeys, Wilcoxes, Marons, Moxleys, Springers, Blancs, Gene Crosbys, Sprouls (Vada Cline) and the Clarks.

The only way to get beef cattle to market from the Owens Valley in those days was by railroad, and that meant the Slim Princess. Shipping a trainload of steers to Sacramento via Mina, Nev., and riding in the caboose was a big thrill for teenage-cowboy Bill. On one long haul, Bill remembers that all five locomotives broke down trying to make it up Montgomery summit. Riding in a special car hooked on behind the caboose was a vice-president of the Southern Pacific railroad, who was making an inspection tour. The official summarily appropriated a hand car, crewed it with an engineer, conductor and brakeman, and had the men pump 45 miles to Mina where they picked up a locomotive, returned to the breakdown site and managed to get the string of 15 cattle cars rolling again.

The Alpers summer range was in upper Long Valley at the old Thomson ranch, now known as Bill and Alice Alpers' Owens River Ranch. It was purchased from Andrew Thomson, who had homesteaded the ranch in the post-Civil War years. The Owens River was named by Gen. John C. Fremont in 1844 during one of his exploration and surveying trips into Nevada and central California.

Christina Alpers sometimes drove a team and wagon up into the mountains to bring supplies to her sons, who were the cowboys at the river ranch. She used to take a winding wagon trail that was later improved and surfaced and became known as Sherwin Grade.

It was no trick at all for Bill and one of his brothers to leave the Owens River ranch early on a Saturday morning, and riding good horses, make it into Keough's Hot Springs south of Bishop by 10 p.m., just in time for the Saturday night dance.

In late fall of 1929, the cattle were rounded up later than usual for the return to winter grazing on the Laws range. It was Nov. 6 and Bill, 19, and his brother, Martin, 16, had the herd gathered and ready to go. They were waiting for the rest of the drovers to get up from the valley and help on the drive. Darkness fell and so did the snow—two feet of it with blizzard conditions. At 7 a.m. the next day, the Alpers brothers made the decision to open the gates, and turn the cattle lose and start the drive home. Twelve hours later they were driving 500 head of cattle into Fish Slough road, 45 miles from where they started.

Christmas was always special for the Alpers children as that was when they made their once-a-year trip into Bishop. They all climbed into a big buckboard wagon and made the long haul into Bishop to share in the Christmas goodies handed out by Harry Holland posing as Santa Claus. Bill remembers one Christmas especially, when a winter wind slowed the team of horses. When they arrived in town, Santa had already emptied his sack. The children began to cry, and Harry Holland really became Santa Claus when he went into Pinon Book Store, picked up nine little toys, and passed them up to the kids on the wagon.

Riding a horse the 10 miles into Bishop high school from north of Laws didn't work out so well for Bill, so he boarded at the Sierra St. home of Mrs. Amon, his grammar school teacher, and graduated along with seven others in the class of 1928.

The Alpers eventually sold their Inyo County ranches to the Los Angeles Dept. of Water and Power, and switched their cattle operations to a summer range north of Reno and a winter range near Marysville.

The cost of shipping his herd to the new ranges would have been $5,000, so Fred Alpers decided to have his sons, Bill and Martin, trail the cattle to Sierra Valley, 60 miles north of Reno. Another cowboy, Roy Baggage, and a cook with a chuck wagon, completed the crew. They left April 28, 1931, with 700 head of grown stock, 17 horses and six dairy cows, and moved out from the old ranch on what proved to be the last cattle drive out of the Owens Valley.

The 84-day drive took the herd up through the Casa Diablo Mine country, across Long Valley to Lee Vining, over Conway Summit to Bridgeport, along the East Walker River to Smith Valley, Nev., Mason Valley to Wabusca, on to Fernley, Sparks, Verdi and Sierraville, and arriving July 3 at Sierra Valley.

Fifty to 60 calves were born along the way and were carried along in a trailer hooked onto the chuck wagon. Once each day, the cows had to be roped and tied down while strange calves tried to nurse a bit. Cows and calves couldn't be paired up under tough trail conditions, and calves who didn't get enough milk to survive were put on the dairy cows three or four at a time in order to get enough nourishment to make it until the next day.

One dairy cow was the leader for 82 days, walking at the point of the herd until just 20 miles from the end of the drive where she laid down on the trail. There she rested until a pickup came back for her, and she rode to the ranch in style.

In late summer, after a three-month rest, the herd was driven 124 more miles to the winter range and ranch outside Marysville. This Alpers' ranch became the U. S. Army air base known as Camp Beale, and until recent years the two-story Victorian-style ranch house was the residence of the air base's commandant.

Bill enrolled at the University of Nevada at Reno and returned four years later to the Inyo-Mono area.

During World War II, he served in the Army Corps of Engineers for three years with Gen. George Patton's Third Army. Alpers' Army service included the D-Day landing on Omaha Beach, crossing the European continent for the Battle of the Bulge, and many other campaigns until VE-Day.

Brookies get gassed in Sparks, recover

Ten members of the Bishop Brookies swim team were treated at Washoe Medical Center in Reno Saturday after they suffered ill effects from a chlorine solution in the Sparks swimming pool where they were to compete.

The Bishop swimmers were warming up for races when some of them came out of the pool choking and coughing. The chlorine line was shut off immediately. When condition of the swimmers did not improve in about 40 minutes, they were taken to the medical center and kept from two to four hours, while their eyes were washed out, special showers taken, hair shampooed, polluted clothing removed, oxygen administered and other treatment administered.

Brookie swimmers treated were Melinda and Pauline Duncan, Helen French, Chuck Bedwell, Doug Thornburg, Cathy Branchson, Karin Kalk Debbie Nakken, Janie Keithley. Nessie Jones went later to have her eyes washed out. Most of the affected swimmers resumed their pool training Tuesday of this week.

Sparks officials are investigating.

Recycle center popular place

RECYCLING CENTER—Eastern Sierra Wholesalers, Inc. has been literally swamped since mid-June when it started accepting aluminum cans and Olympia beer bottles for recycling. The firm pays 15¢ a pound for crushed cans and one cent per bottle at its recycling center, 250 S. Main, Bishop. Cans and bottles may be brought in Tuesdays from 1 to 4 p.m. and Fridays from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. One picture above shows vehicles lined up to unload their cargo, which is shipped on to other recycling centers in Olympia, Wash., and Golden, Colo. In the top right pictures are Linda and Dave Jones of Lone Pine and Bob Grivalva and Steve Jelinek of Bishop. Below them is Bill Bellona, Eastern Sierra's recycling manager. Also pictured is Jim McNally, the firm's beer division manager. Woman in upper left photo is Eleanor Richardson of Lone Pine, who brought in 11,049 bottles and 333 pounds of cans on June 24, the day photos were taken. A total of 75,960 cans were brought in that day, for a total payout of $525.17, of which $369.36 went to the Bishop high school band's trip to Europe.

Police report 5 burglaries in Bishop

The Bishop Police Dept. is investigating five burglaries that occured during a 48-hour period early this week.

Operators of the Lady Bug Boutique and Judy's Hair Styling, adjoining businesses on E. Line St., reported Sunday their firms had been broken into. The boutique lost a cash register and a small amount of change, and the beauty shop lost an eight-track stereo AM-FM radio-record player, a cash box and a small amount of change.

Earl Brown reported Monday his maintenance and supply firm at the intersection of U. S. Highways 395 and 6 had been entered and $20 in cash taken.

The youth activity center at the high school girls' gym was entered over the weekend, but nothing was reported missing when the entry was discovered Sunday.

And three power tools were reported missing Monday from a storage room at Northern Inyo Hospital.

Fire training session held

About 70 firemen from Inyo, Mono and San Bernardino counties took part in a training exercise in Bishop Saturday which included burning and putting out a fire.

The City of Los Angeles Dept. of Water and Power donated a house it owns on W. Line St. to be burned for the training exercise. The house had been scheduled for demolition.

Two state fire training instructors conducted the training session. About 15 members of the Bishop Volunteer Fire Dept. participated.

School will ask DWP for 20-year lease on 5 acres

The Bishop elementary school Board of Trustees declined for the second time Monday night to renew a proposed five-year lease with the City of Los Angeles Dept. of Water and Power for five acres of city land the school uses.

Annual rate on leasing the land had been $100 for several years, but the lease presented for the board's approval June 16 was for $500 a year.

The board voted unanimously Monday to ask the department's Board of Water and Power Commissioners to give the school a 20-year lease at the $500 rate, rather than the standard five-year agreement.

Board member William Snyder said he feared the school might face a lease increase every five years if it could not obtain a long-term lease.

The present lease expires Aug. 1 and the next school board meeting will be Aug. 4.

H. B. Jeter, property manager for the DWP's Bishop office, told the board for years DWP leases "had been ridiculously low" and that now the water and power commissioners are insisting on a fair return on city property of about six per cent of the land value.

Jeter also noted that most other non-commercial DWP leases average $300 per acre per year, and that if that formula were used for the school agreement, it would total $75,000 for the five years rather than $2,500.

Jeter said 20-year leases are granted to groups such as churches and local governments for park and recreation uses, but have not been signed with school districts.

Jeter also noted that the annual $500 lease agreement had not been approved yet by the water and power commission. He said $500 was picked as the lowest possible figure local DWP officials felt the commission would approve.

The five acres involved in the dispute border on the north end of Elm St. school. The district presently has a warehouse on the property and plans to install a food preparation kitchen nearby in the fall of 1976.

Ken Crist, district superintendent, noted the school might be at the mercy of the commission because the lease was not signed.

Asked about the possibility of purchasing the land, Jeter replied the Los Angeles city charter does not require the DWP to leave land vacant for two years if it is proposed for sale to a school or government agency.

However, he said, any sale would require independent appraisals being made for the city and the school district, and he estimated the land would be worth about $15,000 an acre.

Charles Kilpatrick, board president, said he felt the $15,000 an acre figure was "a little unrealistic."

Asked if the school could acquire the parcel under its rights of eminent domain, Crist replied it could if it complied with appraisal requirements and had the cash for the purchase.

The board voted unanimously to look into possibilities of purchasing the land or swapping it for other school property.

In other action, the board:

—approved advertising for bids to construct a 32 by 60-foot portable preparation kitchen.

—awarded a contract to Crown Coach, only bidder at $53,950, to supply the school with a 97-passenger bus. Crist noted $3,900 of the cost was for anti-skid features required by new federal regulations.

—accepted an offer from the Bishop Lions Club of $2,000 cash plus labor and engineering assistance to plant grass on about half the school's playground area. The seeding is planned for late August, and the grassed area should be useable in about a year.

—approved the $2.3 million budget for publication next week in the Inyo Register. The final budget will be adopted following a public hearing at the next board meeting, Monday, Aug. 4, at 7 p.m. at the Elm St. school library.

Lee Vining by Dot Hathaway

Well, with the beautiful, hot days we've been having, it was natural to see many people out enjoying our spectacular scenery. We had some guests enthralled with the area. They just returned from shooting commercials for a malt liquor product in Utah. They said Mono Lake was the highlight of their trip.

Red and Lil Williams of Santa Barbara were in town visiting friends, Nora Rillinger tells me, but unfortunately had to cut short their visit as Lil is still partially restricted from the altitude and is supposed to stay at sea leavel. The Williams were close friends of Lorraine Sanderson.

My grandsons, Henry and Eddie, returned from Paso Robles with their grandparents, Bud and Dee Bayer. All enjoyed seeing the ocean again.

Father Savage's surgery is rescheduled and he will enter St. Mary's hospital in Reno July 30. Father Dachaur of San Francisco will continue to take care of the parish business as well as celebrating all the masses.

Tom and Chris Luft were in Los Angeles where Chris acted as matron of honor for a friend. Many June Lake residents traveled to Palos Verdes for the ceremony. Sorry I don't have the name of the bride and groom, but later. . .

We had a nice turnout for the auction, with bidders traveling from as far as Yosemite to enjoy the sunshine and fresh air. The lake was exceptionally beautiful and provided a great background for the day's events. Lots of fun with losts of bargains, but frankly, I'm a little pooped. Everyone, as usual, worked very hard and their help is much appreciated. Many thanks to Mike Vacchio, John Gabel, Jim Hathaway, Susie Des Bailletts, Cee-Cee Hathaway, Chris Bayer and Linda Haworth.

Saturday, July 26, there will be a bake sale in front of Lee Vining market, sponsored by the 1975-76 songleaders of Lee Vining high school. Hope everyone will turn out and support our local girls in their efforts.

I heard that Lee Desiree was hospitalized and was unable to get more information before "press time", but wanted his friends to know. I will report more details next week.

Biggest surprise was the arrival of Mrs. Grossnickle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reid of Ventura. Others attending were Kenny Grossnickle (4 years old) grandson, Tucson, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKinney, Pacoima; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell, Chula Vista; Mr. and Mrs. James Brummit of Orange.

Duck Pass, back country now open

Lou Roeser of Mammoth Lakes Pack Outfit announces the opening of Duck Pass leading into the John Muir Wilderness Area. The last remaining snow banks have been shoveled and the trails are clear of snow. Warm weather has melted the heavy snow pack and all the back country is now open to travel and camping.

Duck Pass is the shortest and most direct Sierra Pass into the Fish Creek Basin with its many lakes and streams. The trail head to the Duck Pass Trail is reached by a well-paved road through Mammoth Lakes. Duck Lake, one of the largest natural lakes in the Sierra, lies just over the pass. The Duck Pass Trail meets the John Muir Trail and the traveler can journey to such spots as Purple, Virginia, Grassy, Peter Pande and Lost Keys Lakes and Lake of the Lone Indian. One of the most delightful of river valleys is Cascade Valley with Fish Creek meandering through the meadows.

The wildflowers are superb this summer with much water filling all the lakes and streams. Fishing is excellent as the lakes open.

For further information on trail conditions and pack trip services, contact Lou Roeser, Mammoth Lakes Pack Outfit, Mammoth Lakes, phone 714-934-2434.

Steve and Joyce Miller went south for a few days where Steve was best man at a friend's wedding.

Last Thursday was the monthly meeting of the June Lake Loop women's club. A salad buffet was served, followed by a meeting and silent auction which brought in $128.21. At the meeting we saw Mo McConnel, who now lives near Reno and Ann Kirk, also former resident of June. It was also good to see Corey Clark. She is up at her Silver Lake home. The Rummage and bazaar earned $482 and the bake sale $56. We had 37 women at the meeting for the largest crowd in quite a while. Betty Lunbeck of the Villager and Darlene Zippwald were co-chairmen and did a lovely job. The recreation program sponsored by the club took in $378.15 on registration of 40 children.

Elsie Berryman says the thrift shop could use some items to sell, so if you have something you'd like to donate, get in touch with her. She has the shop open every Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Judy Alvaraz is our newest member of the women's club. The August meeting will be a picnic lunch in the park at Gull Lake. The club again will be making baked food for the firemen's barbecue, so if you can bake something, let the women know.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Van Ethen of San Diego are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gaskill and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Gaskill of June Lake.

190 swimmers entered in 3-day AAU-sanctioned meet

About 190 swimmers are expected in Bishop this weekend for a three-day Amateur Athletic Union-sanctioned swim meet at the city park pool. The competitors will include 54 members of the Bishop Brookies swim team, hosts for the meet.

Last year's AAU meet attracted more than 375 swimmers, but the entries are down this year due to another meet being held the same weekend in Lindsay.

Meet events get underway at 4 p.m. Friday with a 1,500-meter open boys and girls freestyle race.

The rest of the 82 events will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

In addition to Bishop swimmers, competitors are entered from swim teams in Reno, Santa Cruz, Lynnwood, San Diego, Pacific Palisades, Fresno, Concord, Manhattan Beach, Sacramento, Bakersfield and Ventura.

Winners in the various events will receive medals for first, second and third places and ribbons for fourth through eighth place. Trophies will be awarded the first and second high-point boy and girl in each age group, including open, 8 and under, 9-10, 11-12 and 13-14. Trophies will also be given to the top four high-scoring teams.

The 82 events are each sponsored by $5 donations made by local businessmen and residents. The sponsorships and entry fees cover costs of the awards.

Bridgeport

by Gregory Grim

Old Duke is back on his feet and he's looking good after his traumatic experience which sent him to the hospital for more than two weeks.

In case you've forgotten, Duke belongs to the Rockels at Ken's Sporting Goods in Bridgeport. A peculiar dog, Duke has made it his favorite pastime to just sit around at the store with a rubber ball in his mouth.

Many a patron has known Duke to give a nudge while in possession of his rubber ball. But nobody has ever been able to figure out what the nudge was for.

Apparently he didn't want to play fetch, didn't even want to get petted. He just liked to carry a rubber ball between his teeth and nudge people. There was no taking the ball out of his mouth. That would elicit a growl. But he never bit anybody. He's friendly in his own odd way.

Not too long ago, Duke got sick. Rockels said he couldn't hold any food and was getting weaker and weaker. So, they took him to a veterinarian in Yerington.

The vet gave him a couple of shots to settle his stomach. But, after the Rockels brought him home, he got worse. Duke was hospitalized and fed intravenously. After several days, the vet called the Rockels and told them that there wasn't much hope. With Duke's worsening condition, the vet decided to try an exploratory operation. The Rockels told him to just go ahead and do whatever he could to save Duke.

It didn't take long. Lodged in Duke's intestine was—yes—his. . . .rubber. . . ball. He apparently swallowed it after fondling it in his teeth.

When the Rockells brought him home he was still too weak to eat, so they had to hand feed him for about three days. Then he began to regain his strength steadily. Now he's the same he always was. Except he has no rubber ball to play with.

The Rockels have seen to that.

Bridgeport Lions Club held their annual barbecue at the Ranger Station Friday night. The turnout was said to be pretty good. Highlighting the evening was a visitor from Japan, Mie Asahara, who has been living with the Dick Pool family since July 12 as an exchange student, sponsored by the Lions.

The 17-year-old Miss Asahara told Lion members that she liked this area very much, almost as much as she likes her home, Osaka, where her parents have their own business.

Asked how his family felt about hosting the young lady, Pool said his own daughter, Rechelle, pretty well summed things up when she said "Let's write her parents a letter and tell them that we've lost her."

If that turns out to be the Pool's strategy, they'll have to write fast, otherwise, young Miss Asahara will leave here Aug. 3 for points north in California where she will spend another three weeks before returning to her homeland.

Anglers' club meets Aug. 5

The Sierra East Fly Fishers club will meet Tuesday, Aug. 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the Northern Inyo Hospital. Anglers interested in joining the group may attend the meeting or call Ray Howbert at 873-3439 for more details.

At the club's July meeting, members saw two films donated by the Fly Fishing Federation, "Way of the Trout" and "Three Trout to Remember." They were the first in a series of movies the club hopes to show.

MAMMOTH LAKES . . by Perrie Keats

Quite a lot going on in town this last weekend what with the tennis tournament at three locations (Community, Vista and high school courts) and the over-the-line tournament at Shady Rest. Never a dull moment if you were at either or both.

And then there was the Walt Disney crew in town to film a Sunday night special on Kit Carson. Chris Connelly (former of Peyton Place) will play the title role of Kit Carson. The filming took place out by Crowley dam and Buttermilk Basin near Bishop. A few of the fortunate ones were able to attend the filming and lots of us met the crew after work while they were relaxing around town.

The Buster Nortons, Terry Smith, Dennis Agee, Roma and Dave McCoy and Debbie and Randy McCoy traveled to the World Championship Motocross in L. A. July 18 and 19. Wes Norton, racing Friday night in the high school championships, qualified in the top 7 in his heat which made him eligible for the finals Saturday night, during intermission of the pro motos. Bad luck befell Wes when he flipped his bike about half-way through the finals, broke a throttle cable and was unable to finish.

Wes is in Mammoth for a visit and then back to the southland for more motocross.

Galen and Steve Colwell and their two sons were in town for four days this past week, while on an extended vacation to Tahoe and Carmel areas.

Evan and Kathy Russell, Nick Gunter, Kathy Fredricksen, Mike Henry and Bev Smith are among the throng of folk from Mammoth attending the Gift Show in L.A. this week. Keep your eyes peeled for the neat stuff they will bring back.

Howard Gray was spotted on "The Rookies" while working a job as a policeman extra in the station house.

Davis Dennis and family are back in town after a stay in Santa Barbara.

Word is in the air that a volleyball tourney is being planned for August 16 and will be only for 4-girl teams. So any interested spikers (female) should start practicing and we will keep ya posted on the future developments.

Lots of landscaping and home improvements happening around town. Tim and Sheri Hamilton are planning a 4-car garage and 50 foot cement driveway. Makes you wonder where the chauffeur's quarters will be! Have you noticed the "instant yards" 'round town?' Sally and Gary Berger, Florence and Don Sharp, the Arlberg and Honey and Bill McMasters join the ranks of new yard owners complete with flowers, turf and landscaping by Jenny Pulliam.

Florence is still fighting for possession of her "instant yard" from her local chipmunks and squirrels . . . so far she has been entirely unsuccessful with the daisies, but has high hopes for the petunias.

Martha Cannon would like to hear from anyone who took photos of the kid's events at the recent July 4 celebration. Anyone having info should get in touch with Martha at Eye Sierra.

Also, . . . am looking for lots of canning and pickling jars. If you know the whereabouts of the like, contact me, care of this paper, Box 787, Bishop, CA 93514.

Horacio Omar Rivas, C.S.

Argentina native Christian Science lecturer July 29

God's power can "change for the better any human situation," Horacio Omar Rivas, C. S., will emphasize in a free public lecture in Bishop city park at 8 p.m. Tuesday, July 29.

Accompanying him on his tour is his wife, Heloisa, a native of Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Bishop girl's essay takes first place

Barbara Dhyse, 17, a senior at Bishop high school, was first-place winner of an essay contest held in conjunction with the 1975 Miss National Teenager pageant June 28 in Hollywood. She also ranked as one of the 15 finalists among 74 entrants in the contest.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duerst of Bishop.

She received a standing ovation from the audience of 600 after delivering her essay, "What's Right with America". Barbara received several prizes for winning the essay contest, including $250 and a trophy.

She was sponsored in the contest by Clement's Electronics, Spoor Sheet Metal, Lady Bug Boutique and the Family Affair restaurant.

Local residents who attended the contest included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Spoor, Doug Brown, Melodie Cooper and Robert Coffee.

Following is Barbara's essay:

What's Right About America

America was built by aristocrats and peasants, from every nation, piecing their best together for freedom and prosperity. Their effort became two centuries of unprecedented growth, pulling America to the forefront of world power.

The free enterprise system gives every individual the knowledge that he can fulfill his potential, the only limit being the one within himself.

If we are dissatisfied with the system, the law provides us with the means for change.

Above all, the need for something to believe in is answered by a constitution that has worked beyond expectations for 200 years, and the unique faith with which America faces each new frontier, saying,

"In God We Trust."

That is the most beautiful thing of all.

Church accepts donations for fire victims

Donations to help the Tom Newton family, who lost everything in a fire July 13, are being collected by the Church of the Nazarene, 900 W. Line St., Bishop.

The family lost all their possessions in a fire which destroyed the ranger's two-story residence at the Millpond Recreation Center.

Newton, 31, is Inyo County ranger for the Millpond area. He and his wife Janice, 28, and daughters Shannon, 7, and Rebecca, 4, are living at the Eleanor Charron residence in the Millpond area until they can find housing.

The Bishop Lion's Club pledged $200 last Thursday to help the family.

Mrs. Newton said some donations have already been made. She said all have enough clothes except for Shannon, who wears a child's size 8.

Other items the family could use include blankets, pillows, pillowcases, furniture and kitchen utensils.

The Nazarene church and Pastor Les Smith will store furniture for the Newtons until they have found a new home.

Before being assigned to the Millpond area, Newton was a ranger at Diaz Lake. Previously he worked at the Mammoth Lakes Ranger station for the U. S. Forest Service. In late December of 1973, Newton was given a $100 cash award and a plaque for outstanding work performed for the Forest Service.

Young runners pass through Inyo and Mono

Four Riverside teenagers who are running a 1,600-mile marathon from Mexico to Canada passed through Inyo and Mono Counties last week.

The four are Jim Boice, 16, and Gustauo Guzman, Mark Barfknecht and Ronald Clark, all 17. All are members of the cross-country track team at Norte Vista high school, Riverside.

The foursome were in Lone Pine Wednesday night, Bishop Thursday night, and went through Bridgeport Friday on their way to Reno.

The run started July 4 in Tecate, Mexico and will end in Victoria, British Columbia sometime in August.

In an interview in the San Bernardino area July 10, Clark said the marathon was being run in honor of the boys' track coach, Clarence O. Duncan, who died Dec. 19, and in honor of the nation's bicentennial celebration.

The marathon became somewhat official when the governor of Baja California handed them a sealed letter when they started for delivery to the premier of British Columbia when the marathon ends.

The four runners are being escorted on the run by Boice's parents, Lois and Robert Boice, who stay within three to four miles of the boys. They keep in touch by two-way radio when the athletes are out of sight.

Their marathon has been endorsed by the national Olympic committee.

Bishop resident aids project in the Philippines

Word was received this week from the Philippines, that James L. Brierly of Bishop, an American Peace Corps volunteer assigned to the National Electrification Administration (NEA) conducted the project studies and was instrumental in coordinating a 200,000-pound loan contract for the Baguro-Benguet knitters and weavers association. The contract will support knitting and weaving as a small scale industry in this province of the Philippines.

Brierly is in his second year in the Peace Corps and is a graduate of Bishop high school and Cal State Long Beach where he received a degree in anthropology.

He is the son of the late Inyo County Superior Court Judge Hugh E. Brierly and Mrs. Thomas W. Hughes of Bishop.

Vehicles banned next to creek

Campsites next to the creek at Bishop Park have recently been reserved for tent campers by Inyo National Forest. Motor homes, trailers and campers will in the future be parked across the road.

Because the auto vehicles have been damaging the terrain and contributing to the pollution of the creek, large boulders have been moved along the road on the stream side to prevent vehicles from parking near the stream.

In addition Inyo County Road Dept. is building a circle turn-around above the campground in preparation to closing the road which in the past has gone from Bishop Park through the community of Apsendell.

Food stamp withholding plan delayed

The U.S. Department of Agriculture extended for six months—from July 1, 1975, to Jan. 1, 1976—the date by which state agencies must implement a public assistance withholding provision under the food stamp program.

Under this withholding provision, a household receiving public assistance can have the cost of its monthly food stamp allotment deducted from its monthly welfare payment and receive its food stamps by mail.

On May 9, USDA's food and nutrition service proposed the extension of the effective date for public assistance withholding because several bills have been introduced in Congress which would make this provision optional rather than mandatory; and the public assistance withholding system is complex and expensive, and many states still have much work to do to implement it.

Details of the extension were published in the Federal Register of Tuesday, July 15, 1975.

THANKS

May I take this opportunity to thank the wonderful people who purchased animals at the Jr. Livestock Auction. A special thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Tobey of Josephs Bi-Rite Market and also Mr. Joe Mendiburu for buying my lambs.

Thank You

Counties due to receive street funds

Inyo and Mono counties would each receive $350 in state funds for regional transportation planning purposes, pending further approval.

The allotments for both counties were approved earlier this month by the state transportation board but still need approval from the state Dept. of Transportation (Caltrans).

An allotment of $525 for Alpine County was approved for immediate release by the board.

All the local funds would be earmarked for local transportation commission (LTC) use, and are part of $1,150,400 in state and federal funds approved by the board for return to regional transportation agencies.

One killed in accident near Lone Pine

Susan Joy Vogel, 29, of San Diego, died early Friday after she was injured in a one-car accident just south of Lone Pine.

The California Highway Patrol reports Mrs. Vogel was a passenger in a car driven by Alvin Milton Walter, 26 of San Diego. The Patrol said Walter was driving north on U. S. 395 when he apparently fell asleep, crossed into the southbound land, and awoke to see an oncoming car facing his vehicle. The patrol said Walter swerved to avoid a collision and his vehicle went out of control off the highway.

Walter and a passenger in his vehicle, Richard Joseph Aland Jr., 28, of Los Angeles, received injuries.

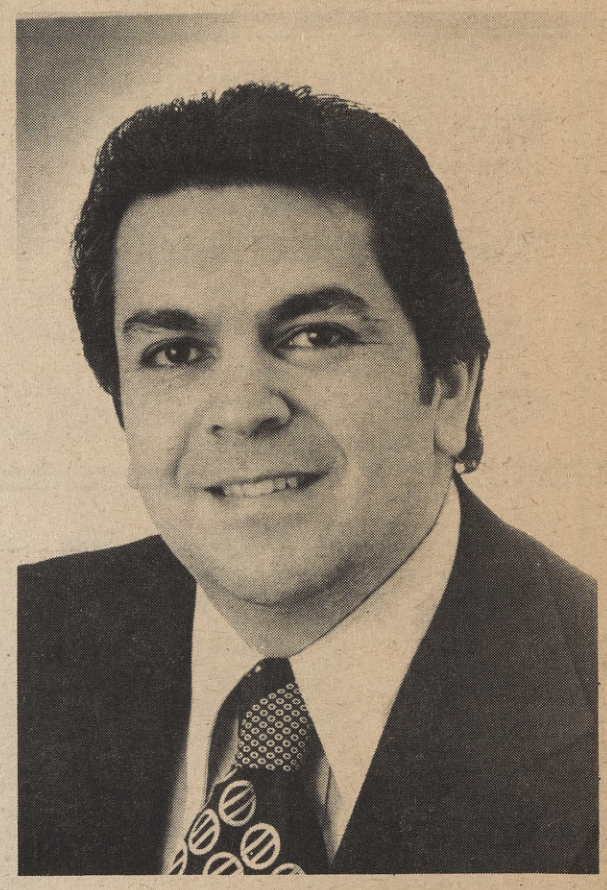

The accident was investigated at about 2 a.m. Friday and Mrs. Vogel died at Southern Inyo Hospital at 7:45 a.m.

IRRIGATE DEEPLY

Give sufficient water to avoid dry spots

by P. Dean Smith
Inyo-Mono Farm Advisor

Do dark green spots show up in your lawn the day after you water it? They are dry spots that didn't get enough water when you irrigated. To keep this from happening, make sure that each time you move your sprinkler the new spray pattern overlaps the places next to it that have already been sprinkled by at least half. This gives each location double coverage and is the only sure way to end up with every spot irrigated the same amount.

Leave the sprinkler run twice as long on lawn boundaries, like curbs and sidewalks, because the edges of the lawn tend to dry out first since they don't get double coverage.

Lawns require at least one inch of water at each sprinkler setting. This much will wet most soils in Inyo and Mono counties one or more feet deep. To tell when you have applied enough water, place a coffee can half way between the sprinkler nozzle and the outer edge of the sprinkler coverage. When there is at least one inch of water in the can, that much has been applied to the lawn. Sprinklers are not accurate enough to apply the same amount of water in every spot. They usually apply the most water near the sprinkler outlet and less water as it gets farther away from the outlet; so the least amount is applied at the outside edge of the sprinkler coverage. Therefore, to apply one inch or more of water in every spot, it is important to overlap each time you move the sprinkler.

At locations in the lawn where there are trees and shrubs, the sprinkler should stay long enough to apply two or three inches of water. This is because they have deeper root systems. If you don't irrigate deeper under trees, their roots will compete with the lawn roots for moisture and the soil will dry out quicker.

If water starts running off the soil surface, it is not going into the soil as fast as the sprinkler is applying it. A sprinkler that puts out water at a slower rate should be used if this happens before enough water can be applied to wet deep enough. Ideally, a sprinkler should be used that will apply water only as fast as the soil will take it.

Benton

by Dorothy Mathieu

The summer program for the children of Chalfant, Hammil, and Benton began Tuesday, July 22, from 10 a.m. until noon. The children are asked to bring a sack lunch. Popcicles will be furnished. All children are invited to attend regardless of age. Plans call for crafts, a story hour, films and games. For more information call Barbara Moss, 933-2536, or Sandy Harfman, 873-7797.

Bud Groat has been spending some time here developing his property.

Calling in Benton on Wednesday were former residents, Betty Coburn, and daughters, Jenice Mattingly and Patricia Coburn, all of Emmett, Idaho, and Lena Coburn of Mammoth Lakes.

The Richard Oldenburg family left Wednesday for a vacation trip to Washinton where they will visit Linda's family.

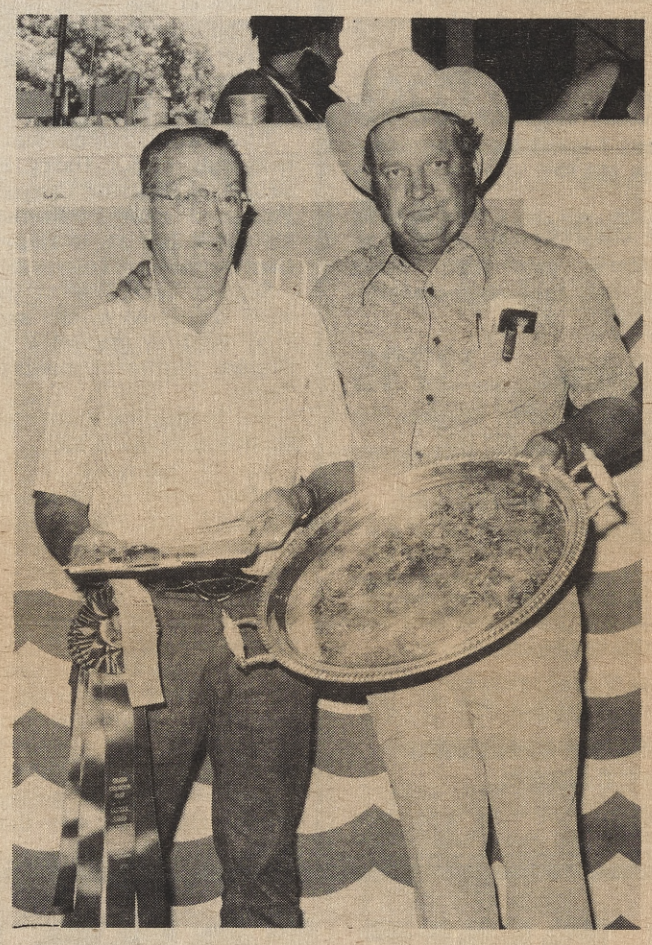

The centennial committee has decided to postpone the Benton celebration until the last of October because of the busy summer and so many people away on vacation.

Recent visitors at the home of Robin Shawn were her sisters, Sharon Silhavy of Valparaiso, Ind. and Betty Hutchcraft of Sullivan, Ill.

Bea and John Walker of Las Begas called at the home of his sister, Dorothy Mathieu, on Saturday.

Kitty and Hugh Walden are home again from a trip that took them as far as Colorado.

Donald Moss of Benton 4-H Club won grand champion grade goat while his sister, Dianne Moss, and Karen Robb both won cooking awards at the Tri-County Fair.

TV survey results filed

The results of a survey of users of translator television in Big Pine and Round Valley areas was presented to the board of supervisors Monday and was referred to the county TV commission for recommendations.

A total of 483 residences were checked, with 470 having television sets. Presently they are paying $2.50 a month for the service furnished by Downey Television of Bishop under a contract with the county paying $12000. The county is not receiving enough revenue from the television users to meet the payment to Downey. The television commission is asked to make a decision as to whether the rate should be increased.

In other matters the board:

Approved a contract with the Calif. Highway Patrol regarding fees for the removal of abandoned vehicles.

Set Mon., Aug. 4, as the date for a public hearing on an appeal by F. D. Freeman, Starlite Estates, of a decision of the planning commission

Had a second reading of an ordinance amending county regulations for the subdivision of real property.

Crowley Lake by Ruby Reese

The problem of the dumpster at the park was discussed at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting in Crowley Lake, and it was decided to turn it over to Community Services, with the stipulation that it would not be placed at the park. Community Services will vote on the need, and if it passes, the dumpster will be placed at the old location, across the road from Dave's Crane Service yard, or on the loop road, to be used by the householders in the area, the same as last summer. The next meeting of the chamber will be Aug. 14, at Whitmore Springs, and will be a pot luck, so take meat for your own family, an extra dish to share, drinks for your own and table services. If you need more information, call Dorris Quinn at 935-4261.

Community Services will have a special meeting on July 24 at 7:30 p.m. at "Cee-Cee's" place in Crowley Lake. Please try to make this meeting as the opinions and ideas of the whole area are needed to help with our fire department. A petition has been circulated to get a proposition on the ballot for a five-member board to represent our area. If you are interested in being on this board, come to this meeting and let your wishes be known. The president of Community Services is Paul Rowan, secretary is Sharon Lucas and the board members are Elsa Buck, Dave Foster, Bob Ross and Jerry Russell. Volunteers for the fire department, until permanent people are elected in November, are Ron Buck, Dick King and Bob Behnke.

Now for some personal notes. . . .Last week, Floyd O'Nan, of the T. P. Motel, got a phone call from Grand Junction, Colo., advising him of the need of a new roof on the apartment building he owns, which would cost him close to $800! Floyd left Friday morning taking his son, Jace, and Terry Aames with him. Together, they repaired the roof in two and one-half hours, at a cost of $60 for gas and food, and $30 for materials! ! Talk about INFLATION! ! . . . The O'Nans have had lots of company, too—a brother and his wife, Eta and Clifford O'Nan from Oceanside, a sister and husband, Arleen and Bob Knight, who live in Auburn, Wash. While they were in Colorado, they visited Floyd's parents, Alemeda and Lindsey O'Nan and also stayed with a sister, Martha, and her husband David Odelberg, of Grand Junction. . . This column seems to be all about the O'Nans, but they have had so much "fun" things going on! ! Another brother, the Rev. Lawrence O'Nan and his wife, Mary, spent the weekend with them. He is a camera bug, so had fun shooting beautiful scenery in our area! Floyd and Lorraine have lived here one year, and registered to vote for the first time last Friday! Happy birthday to their son, Jace, who was 16 on July 9! He took his first long trip in his car, to Los Angeles, with Judy and Mike Cramer of Sunny Slopes this week! Happy birthday to Floyd O'Nan, who is a wee bit over 40! . . . Another "fun" thing: Did you know that Doris Day has been in our area visiting? She stayed in a camper just over the hill from the T. P. Motel. . . Another VIP spending time here was Bob Pluckett, famous Associated Press photographer and father of Victoria of the TV show, High Chaparal. He and his wife, and 9-year-old poodle, spent two days here. Pluckett was the only photographer who got the actual "lift off" of Evel Knievel, when he jumped the Snake River Canyon. . . Happy birthday to Steven Shibbley, who celebrated his first birthday on July 9. He is the son of Brian and Kathy Shibley, owners of Hans Resort in Crowley Lake, and has a sister Carey, who is 3. . .We spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, and met some new neighbors who bought property in the Hilton Creek area. They spent some vacation time here, and planned to start building, but learned no permits are being issued at this time. Their 14-year-old daughter, Gabrielle, is registered at Mammoth high school, and they are hoping to find a home to buy before school starts! Nancy and Michael Gaul and two daughters, Rebecca, 19, and Gabrieele, 14, are living in Indio, but hope to move here before summer is over. We enjoyed our time with them, and hope they can make it! . Jennifer and Del King spent a week in Simi Valley with school friends, but are home now. Bill Aaron brought them Saturday night, and the kids said he is fun to travel with because he stops at parks on the way and lets them play! Riding with their father were Blake, Catherine and Sally. . . .New residents of our area are Cindy and Rick Saunders, who moved here from Reno last week. They are presently living in one of the apartments owned by Tootie and Dave Richardson. . . . Three homes have been sold in the Crowley Lake area. The former Trigg home was sold by Mr. and Mrs. Dufrasne, Marilyn and Jack Drury sold their home, and Tootie and Dave Richardson have also sold. . . .Happy birthday to Sharon Richardson, who was 21 on June 26, but didn't get to celebrate it until last Friday in Tahoe! A large party of people from this area went, and we were invited, but Clarence is still going to the doctor for his back, and by the way, he is improving every day! Call me if you have any news!

Pack outfit now running old-fashioned hay rides

Have you ever ridden on an old-fashioned hay wagon pulled by a matched team of prancing black horses? It is a trip back in time. The children are fascinated by the harnessing of the team, and grandpa remembers how it was done when he was young and teams were more common than automobiles.

Mammoth Lakes Pack Outfit has commenced its summer program of evening entertainment. Every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening, the jingle of harness bells sounds across the meadows as the team of "Black 'n Blue" driven by Lou Roeser pulls the red hay wagon up the grade to the foothills of the Sherwin Bowl. Around a blazing fire, guests roast marshmallows while sipping hot chocolate and swapping stories. As dusk falls, to Strains of "She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain', the horses begin their trip back to civilization.

Blue was a member of a lead team in the movie "Paint Your Wagon." A match was found for him at the Hunnewell guest ranch in Bridgeport and the team of Black 'n Blue began. They have appeared in a number of parades, the most recent being the July 4 parade in Mammoth Lakes where they pulled The Stove's sweepstakes' winning entry.

As part of its support of the Mono County 4-H program, the pack outfit each year donates a hay ride to the Mono county 4-H summer camp held at the Deadman camping area. The team and wagon also carried Inyo County 4-Hers in the 1973 Bishop Homecoming parade.

Groups wishing to charter a hay wagon trip on other nights may do so. The group may bring their own refreshments or the pack outfit will provide them. For further information, contact the Mammoth Lakes Pack Outfit at 934-2434.

Thanks from the parade committee

Now that the gala festivities of the July 4th parade in Mammoth have past, we can look back to that afternoon with fond memories.

The entries were all very well received and the parade was one of the biggest successes ever.

Of course, all of this could not have happened without the hard work and eager participation of many people.

The following is a list of the people who helped enrich the celebration: Lynn Carter, Shirley Bass, Sherrie and Gerry Costello, Bill Cody, Gus Weber, Jim and Irene Nichols. There were contributions donated for the trophies. These individuals and businesses we would like to thank: Terry Craft, Frank Conteni, Cal-Gas, Corner Hardware, The Outfitter, Century 21 Realty, Medical Arts, Village Inn, Turner Gas, Rexal Drug Store, Mammoth Liquor, and Welch's Pancake House.

A helping hand is always a welcome sight in the midst of planning and organizing so we wish to thank these people for donating their time and equipment: B & R Roofing, Bob Ross, Terra Construction, Jim Ricker, Mammoth Pipe Line, Bill Hindsman, Ben Elliot (Alpine Lodge) and Mike Black.

We had a whopping big turn out for the parade with Bishop joining in on the celebration. We would like to extend our appreciation to all who came and made the parade such a success. We would also like to extend our gratitude to all who helped and perhaps we have missed their names.
